FRAGMENTS AND FIGURES

This studio is exploring the relationship between the individual and the whole. We believe in an architecture in which each element has its own value. We are looking at figure as a means to create autonomy as well as relations. For us, architectural autonomy means not letting architecture rest on a single, formulaic idea, but rather basing it on a number of large and small ideas, conceptions that complement or contradict each other – an anthology of ideas. This is a plead for an architecture which attains openness through diversity.
